

Community Growing

Mid-Cheshire

Growing Well Together

Mid-Cheshire

Beech Hill Allotments

We are a private no dig allotment site in Weaverham, managing the land for the benefit of people and nature. With over 30 plots this thriving allotment colony is a great place to spend time, share knowledge and grow.

beechhillperma@gmail.com

Bugz and Bunnies CIC

We are a CIC in Northwich with free sessions for children and adults with additional needs. We welcome everyone and want volunteers and participants to become part of creating our hub through gardening, forest schools and crafts.

bugzandbunnies@yahoo.com

Cuddington and Sandiway Allotment Association Limited

Opened June 2023, our self-managed site has 34 plots for residents of Cuddington, Sandiway and Delamere Park. Members enjoy the wellbeing benefits of growing vegetables, fruit and flowers on a sociable, friendly, helpful site.

candsallotment@gmail.com

Dane Valley Community Orchard

Our orchard off ShipBrook Road, Northwich is a beautiful space growing free fruit and providing fun learning opportunities for all. Volunteers maintaining the orchard and running activities can always use an extra pair of hands.

transitionnorthwich.weebly.com/

Grozone Community Garden

We are a community garden in Northwich where everyone is welcome. A 'hidden oasis' that helps improve your health and wellbeing. We provide a space to learn, meet and enjoy being outdoors.

grozone.org.uk/contact

Mid-Cheshire Community Rail Partnerships

We support volunteer groups at stations along the Mid Cheshire Line to improve the stations and make them bright and inviting places for people and nature. Please enquire to be put in touch with your local group.

midcheshirerail.org.uk

NMC Get Up and Grow @ The Neuromuscular Centre

We welcome volunteers to our regular gardening sessions in our accessible allotment garden, to share skills and support our community at the NeuroMuscular Centre.

sarah.lalieu@nmcentre.com

Queensgate Allotment Association

Our allotments, in the heart of Northwich, has nearly 70 plots for residents to grow fruit, vegetables and flowers. Our Association manages the Town Council site and we have a thriving community who support each other.

queensgateallotments@gmail.com

Rod's Secret Garden

In our hidden community garden behind Oak Street in Northwich, our volunteers work together to create a beautiful space for people to meet, relax and enjoy nature. Volunteers and visitors are welcome, see website for details.

transitionnorthwich.weebly.com

Weaverham Community Memorial Orchard

The Orchard in Thorn Wood was established in 2014, 100 years after WW1 began. Volunteers tend the many Cheshire heritage fruit trees so everyone can enjoy their fruit and provide a place of quiet reflection to remember those lost.

orchard.weaverham.org.uk

Parish and Town Council Allotments

Barnton Parish Council

Barnton Allotments barnton-pc.gov.uk

Cuddington & Sandiway Parish Council (Self Managed)

Cuddington & Sandiway Allotments

candsallotment@gmail.com

Hartford Parish Council

The Green Fields Allotments hartfordparishcouncil.org.uk

Northwich Town Council

Austin Street Allotments, Lostock

Winnington Allotments

northwichtowncouncil.gov.uk/parks

Northwich Town Council (Self Managed)

Queensgate Allotments queensgateallotments@gmail.com

Vickersway Allotments

vickersway07allotmentassoc@gmail.com

Weaverham Parish Council

Russet Road Allotments weaverhampc.co.uk

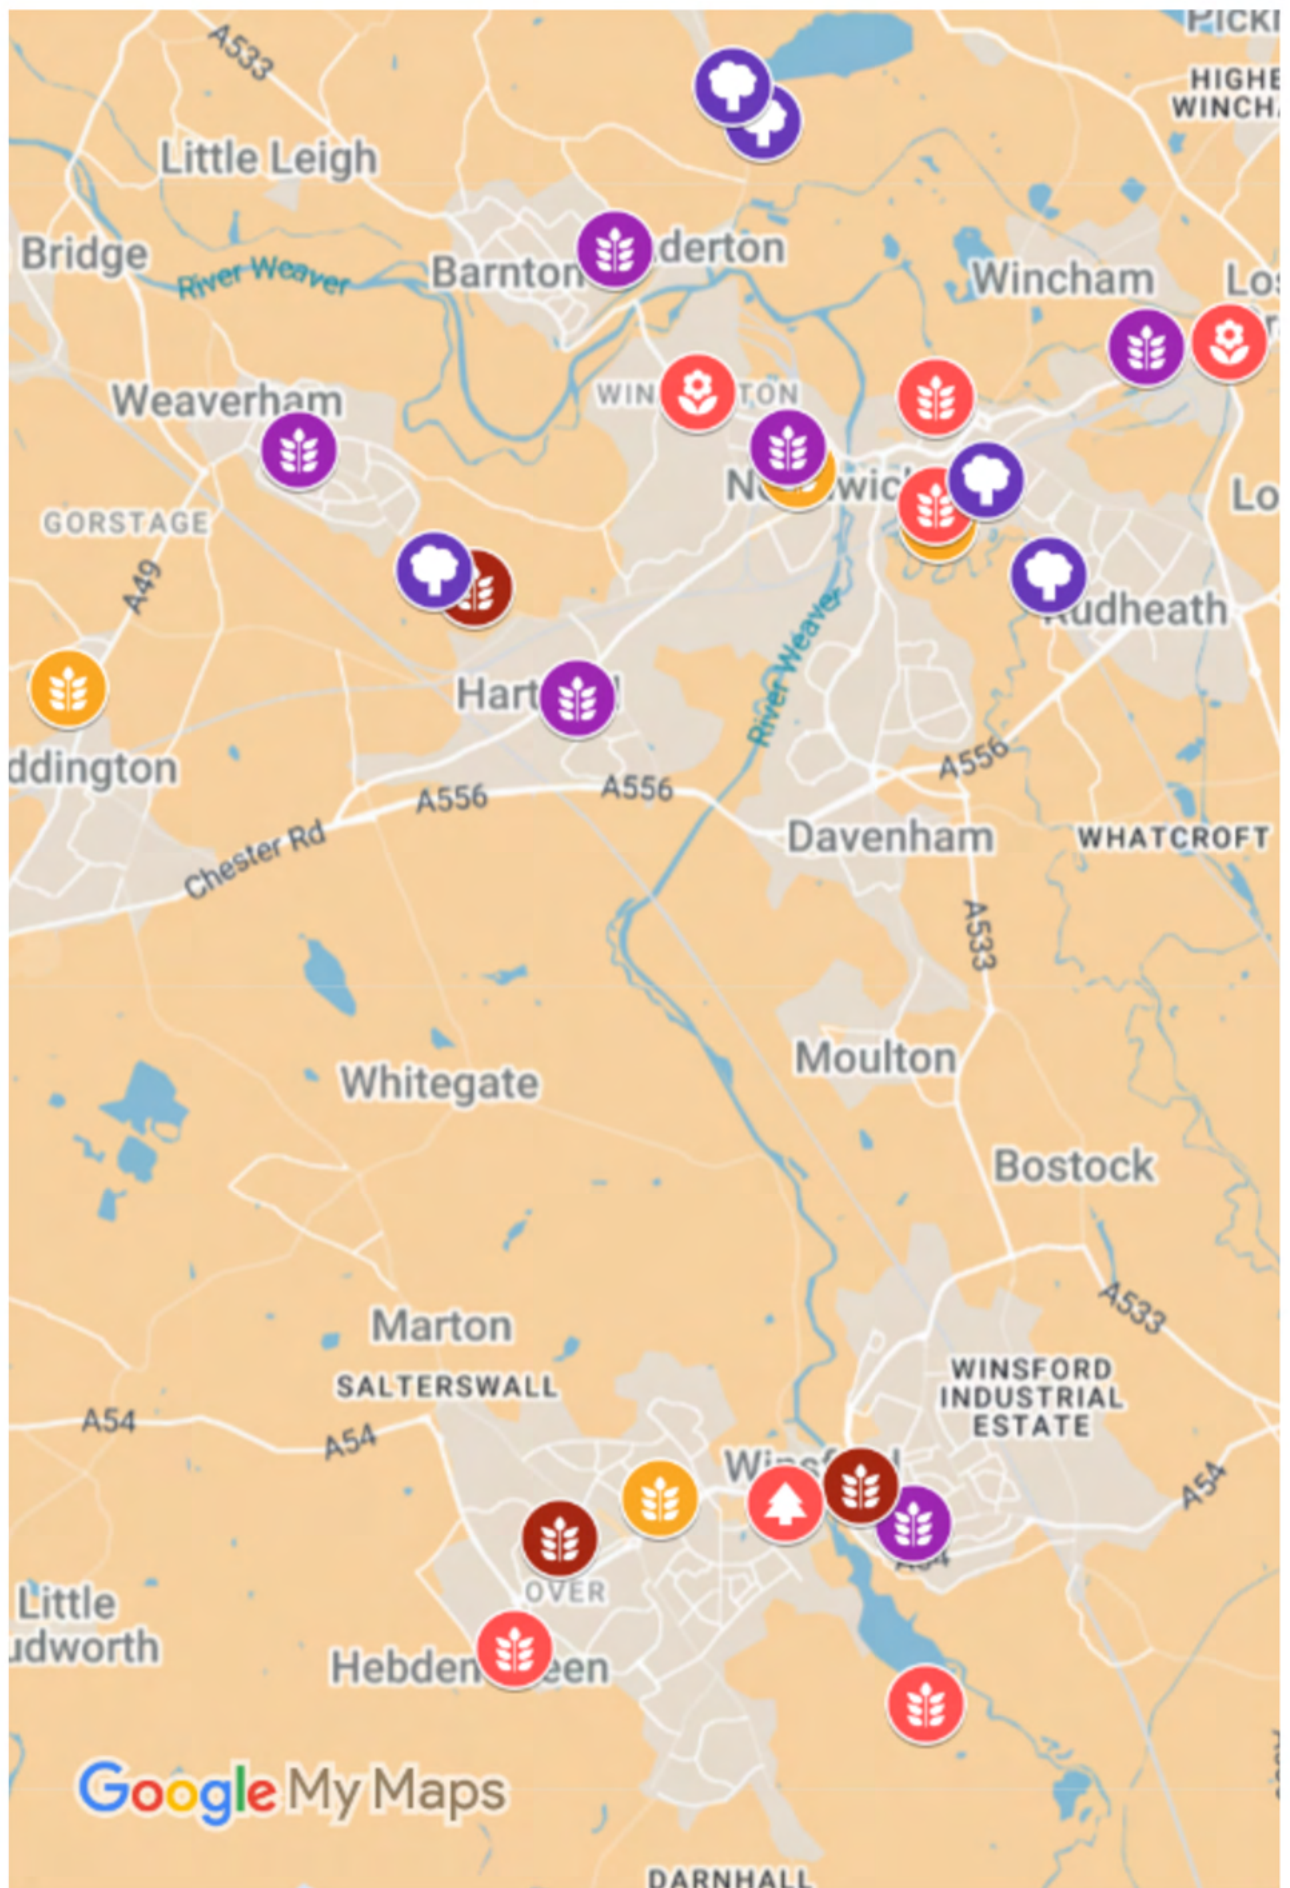

Winsford Town Council

Over Allotments

Wharton Allotments

winsford.gov.uk/services/wharton-and-over-allotments

Not Featured?

Please let us know if you are a community group in Mid-Cheshire and wish your growing activities to feature in this directory

Contact Information

07879 235379 cheshireaction.org.uk

laura.penn@cheshireaction.org.uk

Cheshire Community Action, Queens House Annex, Queens
Road, Chester, CH1 3BQ